1) Admission procedure for doctoral studies1

Following the admission interviews, the Office of The Doctoral School and the The Doctoral School reviews Academic Affairs forwards the Office of Academic Affairs and ranks the applicants and proposals of the Doctoral School organise and manage the formulates its position. to the University Doctoral and admission procedure. Habilitation Council for a decision The University Doctoral and Habilitation Candidates must submit their application to the Office of the The selection board will assess Council decides on the the candidate according to admission or refusal of Academic Affairs by the deadline admission in the regular and in the manner specified in the specific criteria. admission procedure by 30 June admission notice. (in the case of a reserve admission procedure, the deadline for the admission decision is 15 September). The Office of Academic Affairs will formally check the Candidates who meet the formal applications received and, if requirements will be called for an incomplete, will ask the applicant interview by the Head of the Applicants will be notified of the to fill in the missing information Doctoral School in May (August decision by the Office of (if not, the application will be if necessary). Academic Affairs within 8 rejected). working days.

&lt;sup>1</sup> The University Doctoral and Habilitation Regulations 22–29. §.