

Public administration

1. Chapter: Laurence E. Lynn, Jr: Public Management, 17. p. (in document page 1.)
2. Chapter: Carolyn J. Heinrich: Measuring Public Sector Performance and Effectiveness, 32. p. (in document page 9.)
4. Chapter: Donald P. Moynihan: Identifying the Antecedents to Government Performance: Implications for Human Resource Management, 72. p. (in document page 18.)
8. Chapter: Morten Egeberg: How Bureaucratic Structure Matters: An Organizational Perspective, 143. p. (in document page 27.)
9. Chapter: Jean-Claude Thoenig: Institutional Theories and Public Institutions: New Agendas and Appropriateness, 155. p. (in document page 33.)
11. Chapter: Mordecai Lee: US Administrative History: Golem Government, 187. p. (in document page 39.)
12. Chapter: Fabio Rugge: Administrative Legacies in Western Europe, 200. p. (in document page 46.)
17. Chapter: Jaques Ziller: The Continental System of Administrative Legality, 283. p. (in document page 53.)
18. Chapter: Paul Craig: Administrative Law in the Anglo-American Tradition, 293. p. (in document page 58.)
20. Chapter: Paul't Hart and Anchirt Wille: Bureaucratic Politics: Opening the Black Box of Executive Government, 329. p. (in document page 65.)
21. Chapter: Luc Rouban: Politicization of the Civil Service, 340. p. (in document page 71.)
22. Chapter: Bo Rothstein: Political Legitimacy of Public Administration, 357. p. (in document page 77.)
28. Chapter: Marleen Brans: Comporative Public Administration: From General Theory to General Frameworks, 445. p. (in document page 84.)
31. Chapter: Theo A.J. Toonen: Administrative Reform: Analytics, 499. p. (in document page 95.)
36. Chapter: Patrycja Joanna Suwaj: Public Administration in Central and Eastern Europe, 579. p. (in document page 102.)