

WARRING FOR THE NATION

ARMED CONFLICTS, MASS MOBILIZATION AND NATION-BUILDING IN EAST-CENTRAL EUROPE
BETWEEN 1789 AND 1922

University of Public Service – Eötvös József Research Centre
10–11 October 2022

Ludovika Main Building
H-1083 Budapest, 2 Ludovika tér

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Monday, 10 October 2022

Venue: Ludovika Main Building, Széchenyi Assembly Hall

16:00–16:20 OPENING REMARKS

Dr. Gergely Deli, Rector (University of Public Service, Budapest)

16:20–18:00 SECTION I: EMPIRES AND NATIONS IN ARMS

16:20–16:40 Ilya Berkovich (Austrian Academy of Sciences, Vienna):

An Empire in Arms: The Habsburg Monarchy and its Army (1761/78–1868)

16:40–17:00 Ágoston Nagy (University of Public Service, Budapest):

Competing Patriotic-valorous Masculinities: The Images of the "Hungarian Hussar", the "Noble Warrior" and the "Armed Burgher" in 1809

17:00–17:20 Balázs Lázár (Institute and Museum of Military History, Budapest):

The Hungarian Elite and the Organization of the Velites Light Cavalry Divisions
during the War of the 6th Coalition in 1813

17:20–17:40 Frank Rochow (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology /

Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenberg): Exercising Habsburg Rule in Krakau:

The Role of the Military and Fortifications for Imperial State Building after 1848

17:40–18:00 Discussion

18:00–19:20 KEYNOTE LECTURE

18:00–19:00 Prof. AZAR GAT (Tel Aviv University, Ezer Weitzman Chair for National Security):

War, Nationalism, the Peaceful Nineteenth Century and the Causes of World War I

19:00–19:20 Q & A

Tuesday, 11 October 2022
Venue: Ludovika Main Building, Zrínyi Hall

10:00–11:50 SECTION II: THE NATIONALIZATION OF THE MASSES

10:00–10:20 Jacek Jędrysiak (University of Wrocław):

The Failure of the “School of Nation” Concept: The Poles in the Prussian Army, 1816–1914

10:20–10:40 Michal Cáp – Vojtěch Kessler (Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague):

A Nation in Arms, or How Did Prussian Teachers Defeat Austrian Peasants in 1866?

10:40–11:00 Claudiu Craciun (National University of Political Studies and Public Administration, Bucharest):

The Dialectics of War, Rebellion and Land Reform in Pre-War Romania

11:00–11:20 Vasilije Dragosavljević (Institute of History, Belgrade):

The Theory of Integral Yugoslavism: A New Nation Tailored for a New State

11:20–11:40 Discussion

11:40–12:40 LUNCH BREAK

12:40–15:00 SECTION III: WAR, VIOLENCE AND IDENTITY POLITICS

12:40–13:00 Andreas Agocs (University of the Pacific, Stockton): From “Particularized

Trust” to “Generalized Trust”: War, Communities, Identities and Political Order from the Mid-1860s to the 1920s in Central Europe

13:00–13:20 Michael Griff (Dresden State Art Collections): “Una guerra di emancipazione”:

Transnational Volunteering between Garibaldinismo, Internationalism and Masculine Ideals

13:20–13:40 David Smrček (University of Vienna / Charles University, Prague):

Forming the “Nations in Arms”: Language and Violence in Cisleithania in 1897

13:40–14:00 Aliaksandr Piahnanou (KTH Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm):

Habsburg Loyalists, Hungarian Patriots, Magyar Chauvinists: Transformations of the

Burgher Shooting Associations in Budapest (1867–1914)

14:00–14:20 Nino Delić (Institute of History, Belgrade): Austro-Hungarian Prisoners of War in Serbia 1914–1915: Imperial Loyalty vs. National Identity

14:40–15:00 COFFEE BREAK

15:00–16:40 SECTION IV: SYMBOLS, IDEAS AND IDENTIFICATIONS OF THE WARRING FOR THE NATION

15:00–15:20 Aspasia Dimitriadi (EHESS, Paris): The Byzantine Mirror of the Triumphant
Greece in the Years between 1910 and 1920

15:20–15:40 Efe Güzeloğlu (Istanbul Aydin University): From Turanism to Territorial Nationalism: The “Ten Years’ War” (1912–1922) and the Ideological Transformation of the Ottoman/Turkish Officers

15:40–16:00 Maja Vasiljević (University of Belgrade): Warring for the Nation through Music: Musicians from the Kingdom of Serbia during the Great War

16:00–16:20 Robert Andrzejczyk (Rzeszów University): Mobilizing Propaganda Posters
during Polish Border Wars (1918–1921)

16:20–16:40 Discussion

16:40–17:00 CLOSING DISCUSSION, CONCLUDING REMARKS

NEMZETI KÖZSZOLGÁLATI EGYETEM
Molnár Tamás Kutatóintézet

